Volunteer Spotlight

Nancy Kocsmiersky, Development Office

"Remember that the happiest people are not those getting more, but those giving more." — H. Jackson Brown Jr.

Every year the library welcomes volunteers to help us better serve our patrons. One new volunteer is Anita D'addario who has been helping at the front desk where she does what's needed especially shelving returned videos and books. Many of which she plans on checking out!

Anita is a mother of 6 who is happy to be helping at the library. She has increased her love of reading by being in the library. She says, "From A-Z, there's a book for it." So far "the best part of working here has been the nice and helpful staff"

Anita found out about this volunteering opportunity thru the City Property Tax Abatement program and was happy to find a place at the library.

Volunteer Programs

Nancy Kocsmiersky, Development Office

The Library is always in need of volunteers. People can just come in and apply. But there are special programs which give incentives for volunteering. To register Holyoke residents can go thru:

The Senior Tax Credit Work-off Program allows seniors to volunteer 93 hours within a one-year period and they will receive a $750 dollar abatement towards their property tax bill. The program is limited to 30. The deadline for the application is usually in March. For more information click: Senior Tax Work-Off Program

If interested contact the Council on Aging office at 413-322-5625.

The Holyoke Veterans Tax Work off Program

Any Holyoke veteran that is chosen, can volunteer 105 hours for the city and receive an abatement of $1,500 off of their property taxes. Applications are available at the Veteran Services department at the War Memorial Building, 310 Appleton St.. The deadline to submit applications is usually in April. For more info, click Veteran's Tax Write Off Program or call the Holyoke Veteran's Dept at 413-322-5630 for more information.
